No. Renaissance is at per diem. Skirvin is AO's preference but we always knew it was above. We can rethink and put everyone or everyone but the ministers at Renaissance. It is rare that the Secretariat get per diem ever.

And how are we paying over per diem? I thought they were negotiating a per diem rate for USG?

Mark. Per diem is $95. Skirvin is $159 for room and $198 for suites.

Mark,

This looks great, thank you. Sad to hear about the Sheraton! I would say that yes, the Administrator will only stay the night of the 26th which means that whomever is his RF will only stay that night as well. The other two PSD agents will be advance so we will want to bring them in with advance on the 24th.

As for Ryan -- let's hold off on including him. If we need to do so last minute, we can move him to the room that is set aside for me as I have family in OKC.

Could you please remind me how the per diem is working for us here? The Skirvin is outside per diem correct? Although, we are working within a specific budget and we have budgeted for each Minister's delegation to be permitted a certain number of rooms at this hotel? Is that correct?

Thank you,

Hi Millan,

The CEC Secretariat is about to sign the contract for the rooms at the Skirvin Hotel in OKC for the CEC in June. We will be committed to filling these rooms with the cancellation policy noted here:

CANCELLATION: Cancellation damages will be calculated as a percentage, based on the date of cancellation listed below, of total anticipated gross revenues from all contracted sleeping rooms, food and beverage and meeting room rental listed on the opposite side.

Date	of
Cancellation	Percen
tage owed
Date of signing to 90 days in advance 30%
89 days to 60 days in advance 50%
59 to 30 days in advance 75%
29 days or less in advance of event 100%

In general, we were assuming Minister/Administrator plus 8 for each of the delegations. I thought it is possible that EPA might need at least the 12 rooms noted below. Does that look right? There is nothing to prevent us from reserving more rooms at the Skirvin independently based on availability. The general CEC participants will be staying at the Renaissance Hotel. We lost the Sheraton to another group (darn)!

Also, we need to know arrival departure for each of the rooms. The meetings will take place starting at lunchtime on Tuesday, June 26th and finishing after dinner on Wednesday, June 27th. I figured that advance would have to come in on Sunday, to have all day Monday, but let me know if you need more time.

In EPA's case, I am estimating that the following should stay in the Skirvin with any additional staying in the Renaissance. Can you take a look and see if this looks right to you? Do we need to add a room for Ryan and/or Samantha or should they make reservations on their own given the potential cancellation fees? Would the Administrator prefer to stay in his residence on June 25 and check into the hotel on June 26?

Thanks for taking a look at this so the CEC Secretariat can secure the rooms
we need at the Skirvin.
